

Dave Bond

Dave Bond is originally from McMinnville, TN and graduated from Tennessee Tech with a BS in Electrical Engineering in '70 and a MSEE in '71. He worked for the Navy in Virginia as a civilian engineer from '71-'78, and then the Air Force from '78-'10. During his employment with the AF, he worked in various management positions at the Arnold Engineering Development Center from '78-'99. He retired from the AF in 2010 while serving as Director of Engineer for Air Force Materiel Command.

Dave currently resides in Tullahoma, and was appointed to the Coffee County Industrial Development Board in 2017. He also has served on the Tullahoma Area Economic Development Corporation board since August of 2010. He is active in various civic organizations in Tullahoma including serving as an elder of the church of Christ at Cedar Lane. He is married to the former Celia Bomar and has two married children and 5 grandchildren.