

Brent Parsley Biography

Brent is a native of Manchester and is a graduate of Coffee County High School and a graduate of Trevecca Nazarene University with a B.A. in Management. He has been employed in the Banking industry in Manchester for thirty-seven years with thirty-five of those at CapStar Bank, formerly First National Bank of Manchester, where he serves as Market President. He has attended the Tennessee School of Banking and Tennessee School of Consumer and Commercial Lending at Vanderbilt sponsored by the Tennessee Bankers Association. He has served on the Tennessee Young Bankers Board and currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Consumer Lending School.

Brent served as Alderman and Vice-Mayor for the City of Manchester from 1992-2001. He has been active in the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce and held many positions as Director, Treasurer and 2005 President. He currently also serves on the Manchester Recreation Commission.

He resides in Manchester, TN and is married to Lia Basham-Parsley.